International Training Seminar

04 -10 December 2017 in Wolmirstedt

Auslandsgesellschaft Sachsen-Anhalt e.V. organizes an International Training Seminar from the 4th till the 10th of December in BFZ Wolmirstedt, Germany (Saxony-Anhalt). One week training course is a follow-up of the big Eurocamp project organized in August where 55 people from 21 different countries had the chance to learn more about the Sustainable Development.

The project is a wonderful opportunity to get an insight on project management. It will help young people in organizing intercultural trainings or seminars. The training will allow you to develop your own skillset and methods, with different inputs, approaches and exercises, so that young trainers and youth workers can facilitate workshops, trainings, camps and daily work with youth. The training also offers an opportunity to make connections and find likeminded people in organizing joint projects in the future.

Application Deadline: 15th of November 2017

Dates:

Arrival date: 4th of December 2017 before 12:00

Start of the program: 4th of December 2017 in the afternoon

End of the program: 10th of December 2017 in the morning

Departure date: 10th of December 2017 after Lunch

Participants are not allowed to arrive late and leave early.

Program: On the first day participants will get to know each other and the trainers that will lead the seminar. During the second day we will talk about the specifics of organizing typical cultural projects and planning of projects. The participants will have the chance to present their ideas and get theoretical understanding of creating their own organizations.

On the third day we will talk about the competences for trainers and how to lead a group by your own. The participants will get a handful insight on how to build groups, to moderate them and how to behave in a conflict situations.

During the next three days the participants will learn how to organize simulation games as a tool for getting more practical knowledge about a certain topic.

The participants will also present their cultures during cultural evenings. At the end of the seminar we will do the evaluation of the training and discuss the possible perspectives.

The main method on this training will be non-formal education. The participants will be divided into groups and will be assigned certain tasks. They are going to be guided by the trainers. After the tasks they will receive feedback and suggestions for improvement.

Language: The language of the seminar will be English.

Participants: The project is for young people that are interested in youth work and want to gain skills in facilitating training courses and seminars.

Age: Between 18 and 25

Costs: Accommodation, food, insurance and all materials are covered by the organization. There is a participation fee of 40,00 €. For the international participants (living outside of Germany) travel costs will be reimbursed according to the distance from their city to Wolmirstedt. It will be calculated with 9 cents per kilometer. For the German participants the travel costs will not be reimbursed.
